

Immigration: A good move for everyone?

We have looked at the importance of immigration to Australia throughout history. We have also investigated the lives of people from other cultures and compared them to ours. Now it is your turn to investigate a story that answers the question "is immigration a good move for everyone?"

What's your idea?

Write a brief outline of your presentation idea.
Who is it about?
What did they do?
Why is it interesting?

Discuss with your teacher

Preparing your presentation
Interview the person
Research the background - what was happening at the time?
Collect: photos and other artefacts

Presentation
film documentary photostory
radio interview/podcast
webpage digital book scripted play

Presentation
Document a story about immigration.

Test your presentation.
Ask a small audience:
What Worked Well?
Even Better If?

What did you learn?
New or improved Information?
New Ideas?
Skills?

Use your feedback to improve your presentation.

Evaluate your presentation.
Was it effective?
How do you know?

Present your work to an audience.